

“My REAL Name!”

Numbers 6:24-26; Revelation 2:17; 12:10, 11

I. INTRODUCTION

God blesses us so regularly and routinely, some of the blessings are disguised and ignored. Let's unearth one: God gives us naming rights. He let Adam name the animals. God gives parents the privilege of naming their children. Names and the process of naming are actually sacrosanct and very special (to God). If this right is special to God, it should be special to His people as well.

The naming process and names are so significant, your true name will only be revealed to you by God when you enter eternity. Revelation 2:17 Today, we, as believers, will get a glimpse of what our true names are. There is power and purpose in knowing your true and eternal God-given name right here and now. Let it be on earth as it is already done in heaven!

Interestingly, when you grasp the power of naming, you understand why the enemy takes delight in calling you by the name he, the enemy, wants for you. Nonetheless, just because he calls does not mean you must answer.

In the face of opposition, evil headwinds, and accusations, what does God say about you and the name He has already given you?

“When someone says something about you, what they say says more about them than it does about you.”
